Cantiere del Pardo has announced Marcello Veronesi, formerly Chief Strategy Officer, as the new CEO following Fabio Planamente’s resignation. Planamente has co-led the company with Gigi Servidati since 2018.

Upon accepting the new role, Marcello Veronesi expressed, “Assuming this position carries significant responsibility. My aim is to build on the foundation laid by Fabio and the entire Cantiere del Pardo team, enhancing our integration with the Oniverse Group to collaboratively tackle new challenges. I am fortunate to inherit a team that is not only highly skilled but also deeply motivated. With such a solid foundation, I am confident that the future will yield great satisfaction.”

Planamente’s departure, attributed to personal reasons, occurs during a significant transitional period following the yard’s acquisition by the Oniverse Group. Marcello Veronesi will continue his collaboration with long-standing partner Gigi Servidati, who will assume some of the responsibilities previously held by the outgoing CEO.

Planamente will remain a shareholder and a member of the company’s Board of Directors. Committed to supporting the new CEO and the shipyard.

Reflecting on his decision to step down, Fabio Planamente stated: “After many years on the front lines managing this wonderful shipyard, which in recent years has achieved incredible success thanks to the work of everyone involved, I have decided to step down from my operational role to focus on personal projects. I will remain a shareholder and a member of the Board of Directors, and I am confident that, under the operational leadership of Gigi Servidati and Marcello Veronesi, the shipyard will continue its path of growth and consolidation. I want to thank all our collaborators and partners, who have always stood by us in overcoming the challenges we’ve faced during this long journey.”

Gigi Servidati, long-time partner of Cantiere del Pardo and current Chairman of the Board, commented: “I understand Fabio’s decision and thank him for the great work we have done together over the years. I am confident that Marcello Veronesi will provide continuity, while also bringing new energy and valuable ideas for the future of Cantiere del Pardo.”
